RE: Agricultural Advisory Board Member

In accordance with Property Tax Code § 6.12, the Chief Appraiser, with the advice and consent of the Board of Directors, shall appoint an agricultural advisory board to advise the Chief Appraiser on the valuation and use of agricultural land. One of the current members has resigned his position on the board creating a vacancy. The Chief Appraiser is seeking applicants to fill this position.

Applicants should be local producers who have a working knowledge of current land lease prices and shares, cattle prices, crop prices, and expenses.

Applications are available on the District's website at www.milamad.org, at the Milam Appraisal District office at 120 N. Houston, Cameron, and at a variety of local agricultural businesses and offices.
